Go for bold

If you're no shrinking violet, you must take a look at H&M's latest collaboration with style icon Iris Apfel. A celebration of the beloved 100-year-old's famously over-the-top looks, these flamboyant pieces in a kaleidoscope of colours can be worn together or paired with simple staples. Find your inner Iris - you won't regret it!

Jacket. £229.99, styled, Iris Apfel x H&M.
Trousers. £39, 8-32, JD Williams.
Trainers. £75, 5-9½, Levi's
 (DOWNWARD OVER PAGE)

Rethink pink

As we get older, it's important to invest in the best quality fabrics and flattering cuts we can afford, especially when wearing Crayola brights. It stops us looking childish and keeps us on the right side of sophisticated (which we all want). Think about how the shapes of your clothes work together. As a general rule, if one part of the outfit is oversized or billowing, then pair it with something tailored or fitted to achieve balance. Add cool-girl colour-pop trainers, and you have daywear with attitude.

Coat. £250, 8-20, Pure Collection.
Blouse. £259, 6-18, Winser London.
Trousers. £89, 6-18, Cos.
Trainers. £219, 3-8, Penelope Chilvers

We love hue

Move over black, navy and khaki - brown is the new neutral on the block. Designers and fashion editors are obsessed with spring's cocoa bean tone. So if you're going to invest in a wear-with-everything colour, chocolate brown will bring new-season brilliance to your wardrobe. Team with fearless fuchsia and cherry red to take you from work to wow in seconds. And let's face it, who doesn't love chocolate?

Blouse. £79, 6-18, Cos.

Skirt. £59.95, xs-l, United Colors of Benetton.

Bag. £159, Hobbs
